

La Grange College

1978-1979 STUDENT HANDBOOK

THE LAGRANGE COLLEGE STUDENT CREED

Life is mine to Live. That I may cherish it
And right royally meet its responsibilities,
I would lay aside that which is
Narrow, selfish, ignoble, and unkind;
The false, superficial, the dishonest
I would shun in thought, word and deed.
Rather may I cultivate in my college life
Those traits and ideals that will fit me
To weave dreams into realities,
An impressions into character,
To meet bravely the hard tasks of life,
To bring joy to those who falter in their tasks.
I would strive to judge more kindly,
Trust more fully, and love more deeply,
That my life may reflect His goodness.
And my soul may grow on the knowledge
Of Him, whom to know is life eternal.

Dear Students,

Welcome to LaGrange College. We are happier than you know to have you on our campus. Your presence will renew our enthusiasm and inspire us, to fresh, new insights. We hope that LaGrange will make a significant contribution to your personal growth. We shall be interested in you as an individual and shall wish to help you develop your potential to its fullest extent.

People are more important than things. You will want to become acquainted not only with those mentioned in this booklet, but also with all others you meet. Association with people is as vital as textbook knowledge. It is our conviction that most of the people on this campus are friendly, willing to be of assistance, and desire in return your friendship.

Let us urge you to take part in campus life. Your Student Government Association is the voice of the student body and is very effective. There are many interest groups and social clubs on campus which can give you an outlet for your talents. Become involved--that's the key to success.

Every facet of your new experience will be rewarding--not just in the next few weeks or the next few years, but for many years to come.

We are glad you are at LaGrange. Do come by our offices and visit with us.

Dear Fellow Students,

Choosing a college is one of life's major decisions. I am glad you chose LaGrange College and let me commend you for being accepted.

You will find the students, faculty, and administration warm and friendly. Here, a balanced atmosphere of study, recreation, and fellowship abounds. Certainly, your primary motivation for continuing your schooling is to broaden your educational horizons. At a liberal arts college such as LC, you can become schooled in a broad number of curriculums. I encourage you to take advantage of as many varied courses as possible. Knowledge of a wide variety of subjects will most certainly be an asset to all of your future undertakings.

But there is more to college than formal schooling. Grasp the opportunity to engage in recreational activities and seize the chance to join campus organizations. If you supplement your formal studies with these other activities, I am sure you will find your college career both educationally rewarding and socially enjoyable.

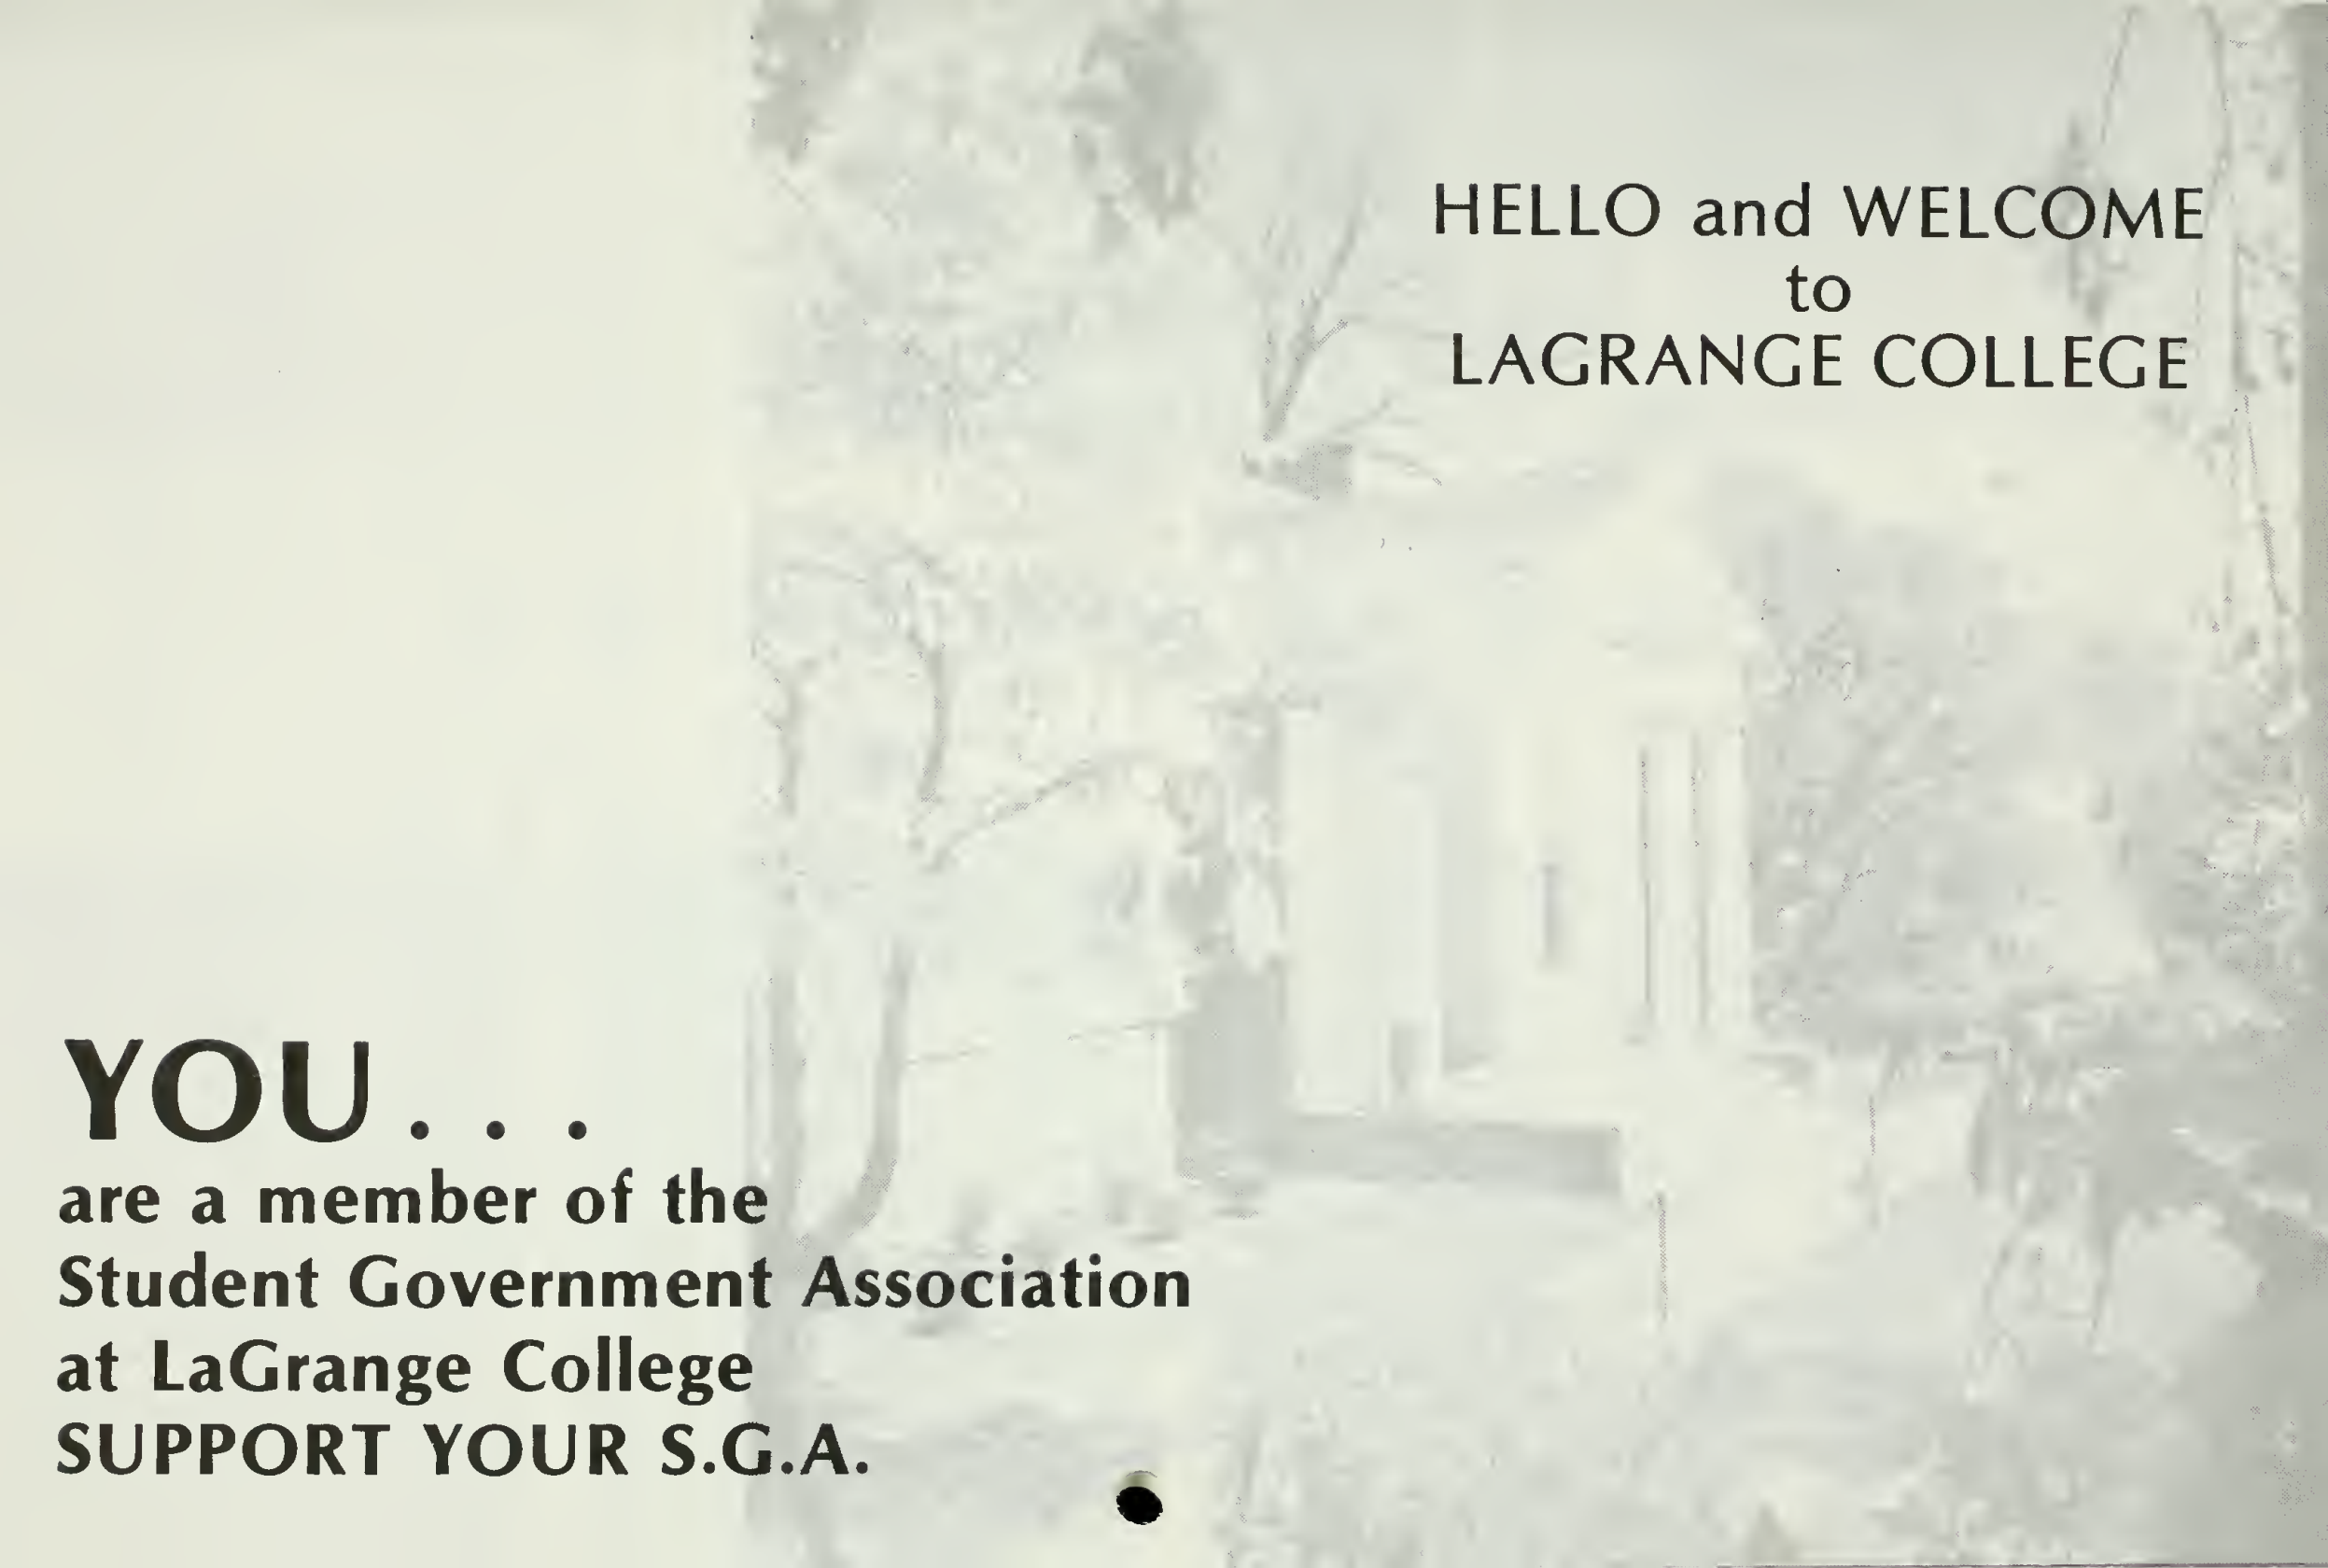

Be friendly! Become involved with your fellow students. . . get to know them, be open, and exchange ideas. Fellowship is an important aspect of all human endeavor. Everyone needs friends to share his or her hopes, joys, and expectations. Get acquainted with the professors and members of the administration. I think you will find them willing to listen to your concerns--and eager to help.

On behalf of the student body, let me again welcome you. You have our wishes for the best of luck while here at LaGrange College.

Sincerely,

Rick Herbert

STUDENT CONDUCT and RESPONSIBILITY

LaGrange College has high standards of conduct. Lying, cheating, and stealing are not countenanced. The possession or consumption on campus of any type of alcoholic beverage or other intoxicant is forbidden.

Possession of any type of drug in one's room, car, or off campus will constitute grounds for suspension and any persons involved may be asked to leave campus within twelve hours. These persons will also be turned over to the proper law authorities. All students occupying a room where drugs are found are considered responsible unless investigation reveals only one possessor.

In offenses involving issues of honor, the Judicial Council of the student government will determine involvement. The Council's recommendations are subject to review and/or advice from the President of the College. Where an offense is proven to be one of serious social misconduct, the Dean of Students has authority for disciplinary action. Where there are infractions of standards of integrity in the academic area, the Academic Dean has authority in dismissal. Off campus activities of Social Organizations are subject to the jurisdiction of state and local authorities.

Responsibility for maintenance of honorable conduct in academic and social activities is entrusted to the students in cooperation with the faculty and administration. To this end each student, upon enrollment, signs the following pledge:

"In recognition of the obligations and privileges of membership in the student body of LaGrange College, I hereby agree to obey all rules and regulations of the College; to respect and to cooperate with its constituted authorities; to conduct myself honorably; and at all times to live in such a manner as to reflect credit upon myself, my family and the College. I realize that failure to comply with this pledge subjects me to disciplinary action."

A student whose conduct indicates that he or she is not in sympathy with the ideals and standards of the College or who seems unable to profit from its program may be asked to withdraw.

Any student that feels that his or her rights have been violated or that he or she has been falsely accused may request a hearing before the Student Conduct Committee of the faculty or the Student Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees.

GENERAL RULES FOR STUDENTS

I. DORMITORY REGULATIONS

A. Locking of doors and signing out

The doors of the women's dormitories are to be locked at 12:00 on Sunday through Thursday nights, and at 2:00 on Friday and Saturday nights for the safety of the women residents. The Night Watchman will come by each dormitory every hour within 10 minutes before the hour and 10 minutes after the hour and unlock the door to let residents enter. It is suggested, for convenience purposes, that residents sign out when leaving campus for an extended period of time.

B. Quiet Hours

Every resident will observe the following quiet hours on campus:

1. Sunday through Thursday 7:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. until 9:00 a.m.
2. Friday and Saturday - 12:00 p.m. until 9:00 a.m.

C. Rooms

1. Student rooms are subject to inspection by administration or resident counselors at any time. Rooms are normally inspected for cleanliness between 1 and 3 o'clock each Saturday afternoon by resident counselors according to criteria established by the respective Dormitory Councils. A $5.00 fine may be assessed against an occupant who does not comply with this rule.
2. Changes in roommates and rooms must be through the resident counselors and with the approval of the Dean of Students, after inspection of room for damages.
3. The College cannot be held responsible for valuables left in dormitory rooms.

4. Furniture must not be moved from one room to another without permission of the Business Manager. A $5.00 fine will be assessed for each piece of furniture moved on campus without permission. If furniture or other college property is moved off campus, a $25.00 fine will be assessed.
5. Charges for rooms are listed in the College Bulletin. Single rooms are available for students requesting them. Students not requesting private rooms, but who are occupying rooms without roommates at the beginning of a quarter will be given one week from registration to find a roommate. If, at the end of one week, the student is still occupying a room on a single basis, the single occupancy charge will be made. It is the responsibility of the student to find a suitable roommate. Willingness to accept a roommate will not constitute grounds for waiving the single room charge. A resident whose roommate chooses to leave after the first week of the quarter will not be charged for a private room for the remainder of the quarter. Determination of whether single or double room charges are applicable is the responsibility of the Resident Counselor.
6. Resident students are responsible for college property in the rooms they occupy.
7. Resident students may not keep pets in their rooms. A $5.00 fine will be imposed on the first offense and $10.00 fine for the second offense. A third offense will result in consideration by the Judicial Council of the S.G.A.

D. General Regulations

1. Lobbies in residence halls are for the use of the students who occupy each particular dormitory and their guests. No meetings may be held without permission from the resident counselor.
2. All student residents of dormitories are required to attend house meetings of their particular buildings.
3. All men visitors must leave the women's dormitory area by the scheduled time for doors to be locked.
4. Men students will be permitted in the residence areas of women's dormitories and women students will be permitted in the residence areas of men's dormitories to help with luggage or for other reasons authorized by the residence counselor.
5. For reasons of convenience and safety, all resident students shall sign out in their respective dormitories before leaving for overnight trips.

E. Guest Regulations

1. A guest may register in a residence hall only when an individual residing in the dormitory accepts responsibility for him and secures permission for the occupancy of a bed.
2. No resident student may have an overnight guest when he or she is away from his or her dormitory room overnight. The guest of another student or member of the college staff may use the bed of an absent student only with the permission of that student.

7. A $10.00 fine will be assessed a student for parking a car on campus that is not registered.

VII. ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Guardian of our days;
For thy spirit never failing
We will sing thy praise.
High aloft we hold thy banner,
Ever loyal true;
And to thee, our Alma Mater,
We our pledge renew.

In thy mighty groves of learning
Wisdom's path we've sought.
High upon thy lofty hilltop
Visions have been wrought.

From our hearts we sing the chorus
Time shall never change.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail to thee, LaGrange.
